Interreg NEXT MED

Co-funded by the European Union

DIEM

INTERNATIONAL TRAINING OF TRAINERS (ToT) PROGRAMME

Mediterranean Cultural Heritage: Common Ground and Driver for Inclusion and Development

Activity promoted within the framework of the DIEM Project Developing Inclusive Education in the Mediterranean, funded by the Interreg NEXT MED Programme.
https://www.interregnextmed.eu/project-page/diem/about/

WHO CAN APPLY?

Heritage site and museum managers | Public institution representatives | University professors | Researchers | Cultural heritage professionals

1 – THEORETICAL ONLINE TRAINING | 20 HOURS FROM SEPTEMBER 2026

Online lectures delivered in English by international experts, covering: Cultural heritage management | Conservation | Documentation | Governance | International best practices

2 – APPLIED ONLINE TRAINING | 20 HOURS

Interactive sessions supporting participants in the development of Management and Communication Plans for selected heritage pilot sites.

3 – INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP IN JORDAN | EARLY 2027

Selected participants will work with DIEM experts on pilot site Management and Communication Plans, take part in practical activities, contribute to the development of Groups B and C Training Toolkit, and engage in international knowledge exchange.

Travel and accommodation costs will be covered by the DIEM Project, subject to project rules.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: 31 AUGUST 2026

Find out more: https://bit.ly/4cdiIiv
Application form: https://forms.gle/XhfvLwKtYBMtDU726

LEAD PARTNER

Sapienza Università di Roma

PROJECT PARTNERS

MEMO Memorie e Nuove Opere

Tarmeem Center for the Preservation of Heritage مركز ترميم للمحافظة على التراث

Universitat Politècnica de València

IRP Instituto de Restauración del Patrimonio

ANIMED

Faculty of Engineering - Ain Shams University Since 1839

An-Najah National University